Controller

The combination of buttons is mainly divided into three categories: Hotkeys Combination, Hardware Combination, and Special Combination.

Hotkeys Combination:
Hotkeys enable you to press a combination of buttons to access functions such as saving, loading, and exiting emulators. The following chart shows the default hotkey combinations. By default, the hotkey is select so that means you hold down select while pressing another button to execute a command. Note that hotkeys are only specific to the retroarch/libretro based emulators.
